National Touring Production of Little Red and the Big Bully Wolf to Perform Locally

Bright Star Touring Theatre, a national professional touring theatre company based in Asheville, North Carolina, is visiting the area with their performance of Little Red and the Big Bully Wolf.

Follow Little Red as she embarks on a visit to Grandmother's house. Her trip is fraught with trouble from the Big Bully Wolf. Wolf is a menace to everyone he encounters - that is until Little Red teaches him that no one likes a bully. This program is best appreciated by audiences in Pre-K through third grade. Little Red is a 45-minute program performed by just two professional actors.

Each year, Bright Star Touring Theatre serves nearly 2,000 audiences in schools, theaters, libraries, museums and more across the country. Bright Star offers a wide variety of curriculum-based programs ranging from The Legend of Sleepy Hollow to Heroes of the Underground Railroad. "We travel with everything we need and we can perform just about anywhere," says Casting Director Emily Hubbard. "Our actors join us from all over the country and they sometimes visit ten different cities each week, playing a wide variety of characters. It's a great way for them to flex their acting muscles!" The company performs regularly at the National Theatre in Washington, DC and has gained international attention, having visited Russia and Germany with their productions. Information about all their interactive shows, is available online at www.brightstartheatre.com, or contact Bright Star Theatre directly at 336-558-7360.
